Importance: High

Dear Judiciary Committee Members-

As a police officer in the State of Connecticut for 33 years; I am urging you to support S.B. 123: An Act Repealing the Risk Reduction Credit Program. The ability of violent convicted criminals to be able to qualify for this program is reprehensible. The state of Connecticut is charged by its citizens to utilize those actions and means which will protect the innocent and remove the violent predators from society. This responsibility has been sadly compromised by the Malloy Administration under the direction of Michael Lawlor. Of the seven thousand violent offenders released for the sake of saving money, approximately 30% have re-offended; and two lives of citizens have been taken. This is unacceptable.

Your action on this bill in passing it to the full legislative body for a vote is urged.

Thank you!
